MARTIAL LAW TO BE ORDERED IN BELGIUM

Socialist Riots Throughout the Kingdom Have Come to a Critical Stage.

TROUBLE IN EVERY HAMLET.

Demands for Universal Suffrage and Other Reforms Coupled With Strikes and Threats of Violence.

Brussels, April 11.-Se grave have become the Socialist disorders throughout Belgium that the Government has decided to proclaim martial law Monday unless the trouble shall be settled by that time.

In almost every town and hamlet in the Kingdom the malcontents have been at work, stirring up the people in favor of universal suffrage and other reforms. In the proves of more or less sections riots that have occurred many persons have been injured. There is no way of telling how many, though the number must run far up into scores, if not hundreds, Peuple against the assaults of the police all-last night quietly departed early this morning, when the police and a body of gendarmes were on the point of making an attack with rifles.

The Burgomasters of Brussels and suburban municipalities have proclaimed that meetings of more than ten persons are prohibited, and that any one found carrying a revolver shall be liable to six months

All centers of agitation are bristling with buyonets. Squads of cavalry are continually patrolling the streets and guarding the shops which were threatened with plunderiver by the rioters.

A manifesto, signed by the General Council of the labor party, has been widely posted. It demands a revision of the Constitution and universal suffrage.

Telegrams from the country districts indicate the widespread character of the movement to culminate in a grand coup-next week, during the reform debate in At La Louviere 6,000 men ceased work, forcing the workers in the large industrial establishments at La Croyere and Haine St. to burn all factories where the workers re-

Considerable excitement was caused among the officers at the Fourth District Police Station, corner of Seventh and Carr streets, yesterday afternoon, by the wife of Patrolman Shelton drawing a revolver and theatening the life of her husband. Upon the request of Shelton, she was arrested and later sent to the City Hospital. Subsequently the couple became reconciled and went home.

The patrolman states that Mrs. Shelton was worried by fancied domestic troubles. Yesterday, to endeavor to assure her that he was attending to his duty, which she had claimed he had been neglecting, he accompanied her to the station to see Cap-

While they were talking, one of the of-ficers present, noticed Mrs. Shelton take a pistol from the folds of her dress and level It at her husband's head. He shouted a warning and Shelton, turning quickly, wrested the weapon from her grasp. She was removed to a cell until an ambulance could be summonded. The couple live at 2213 Cass avenue.

Several Delegates want Mr. Denny to become a candidate, but he has positively declined. Delegate Hannigan is next choice and Fontana next. With D any out of the contest Hannigan is the favorite of the Sweeney contingent.

MANSFIELD VISITS HIS FRIEND.

Actor Has Not Forgotten Charles Broadhead's Favor.

Richard Mansfield's grateful recollection of a friendly act done him many years ago by Charles S. Broadhead of No. 333 Lafayette avenue Wednesday prompted the great actor to visit Mr. Broadhead's home to renew his expressions of gratitude.

Mr. Mansfield called at Mr. Broadhead's office, as is his invariable custom when playing in St. Louis, and there learned that his benefactor of former years was at home very much broken in health. Without letting any of his suite receive an inkling of his intentions the actor walked from his hotel to Mr. Broadhead's home, almost three miles. The two men spent the afternoon recounting the incident which was the foundation of their strong friendship.

Sixteen years ago, when Mr. Mansfield was neither so rich, nor so great an actor as he is to-day, he became involved in a lawsuit growing out of a misunderstanding about a contract. The actor was without either means or influence, and apparently at the mercy of his adversary, who had both. Just when it seemed that he must lose not only the suit, but h s engagement as well, Mr. Broadhead heard of the affair and came to Mr. Mansfield's rescue. Without the formality of a retainer, Mr. Broadhead undertook his now famous client's case, and won it.

Mr. Mansfield attributes somewhat of his present standing in the theatrical profession to Mr. Broadhead's interest in his behalf at that time, and he is never forgetful of it. On two subsequent occasions Mr. Broadhead has met Mr. Mansfield in England, while the latter had engagements in London. Each time he was the actor's guest, and not in the many years that he has come to St. Louis has Mr. Mansfield failed to visit Mr. Broadhead. of a friendly act done him many years ago by Charles S. Broadhead of No. 2333 La-

By leaving the caucus Keily informed Sweeney that the latter cannot elect Speaker without making terms with the Keilylies, who number only four. Nine delegates attended the caucus. Fifteen votes are necessary to elect a Speaker, and the Sweeney contingent has but five to draw on, with a prespect of losing one or two of them.

Before the House adjourned Mr. Denny invited the Democratic members to meet in a committee-room and agree upon a candidate for Speaker. Kelly, Geragnty, Burke and Faulkner did not enter the room until pursuaded to do so by former friends in the Sweeney contingent, and then they did not rush in.

Around the tables were assembled Delegates Denny, Brennan, Cronin, Fontana, Gazzolo, Hannigan, Howard, Sweeney and Williams—nine. The Kellyites swelled this number to thirteen.

About ten minutes after the Delegates were called to order by Mr. Denny the door was opened and Kelly came out. He was followed by Messrs, Eurke, Geraghty and Faulkner.

About fifteen minutes later the caucus was adjourned. "We did nothing." Sweeney said. "Like last Friday we just met. We haven't decided on a candidate for Speaker. We'll meet again Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock." "What do you think of them?" Cronin exclaimed. "That's great! They pulled out because we wouldn't nominate Kelly for Speaker."

Besides the nine delegates who were present yesterday, the Sweeneystes count on Delegates Buckley, Kinney, Stanard, Troil and Zachritz, which would give them fifteen votes—enough to clect a Speaker. They feel certain of three toy are not sure.
